WE DEDICATE

Dr. Harry B. Kern

A dignified, swinging walk . . . a shrug of the shoulder . . . a sharp look from keen gray eyes . . . dressed in shades of brown and tan . . . carrying the little black bag, badge of the physician's trade . . .

While serving as a School Director of Slatington School District from 1929 to 1941, Dr. Kern was an outstanding school board member, always working constructively to improve the school system.

Due to Dr. Kern's forsight, the 1935 School Board adopted his idea to begin plans for a gymnasium with shop rooms. The building, financed through P.W.A. funds, became known as Smith Hall.

Serving as school physician since his term on the School Board, Dr. Kern has examined the boys and girls participating in athletic activities at S.H.S. without compensation. He has provided professional services as well as school spirit at all athletic events.

A staunch supporter of S.H.S. sports events, Dr. Kern has contributed financially as well as with time and words. Dr. Kern has been a prominent citizen of Slatington and has earned the respect of school administration, teachers, parents, and students.

OUR THEME: CLIMB EVERY MOUNTAIN

CLIMB EV'RY MOUNTAIN*

Climb ev'ry mountain,
Search high and low,
Follow ev'ry by-way,
Ev'ry path you know.

Climb ev'ry mountain,
Ford ev'ry stream,
Follow ev'ry rainbow
Till you find your dream.

A dream that will need
All the love you can give,
Ev'ry day of your life
For as long as you live.

Climb ev'ry mountain,
Ford ev'ry stream,
Follow ev'ry rainbow
Till you find your dream!

FOREWORD

As the summit of our climb comes into clear view, we, the graduating class of 1968, remember happy days gone by and anticipate challenging days ahead.

Beginning as freshmen, we felt that the trek upward seemed insurmountable. Now, looking back, we realize the journey was a very short one.

Climbing any mountain has its obstacles, and our climb was no exception. Perseverence, determination, plus an underlying faith enabled us to meet any new challenge. With a touch of nostalgia we recall the varied experiences of our sojourn. Using the key of knowledge conferred upon us through teachers' patient instruction, we now face the future with a firm foundation.

In Memoriam

— Russell James Marlatt

The high feeling . . . of speed and wind . . . on a motorcycle . . . a dreamy look . . . a quick temper . . . curly black hair . . . to match sympathetic eyes . . . love expressed in many ways for parents . . . closeness to friends . . . deliberate and still . . . ignoring authority of any kind . . . the essence of freedom . . . a loss to our class . . . RUSSELL MARLATT.

FOOD FOR THE FAMISHED

Hot dogs, soda, chips and candy . . . cold cokes at freezing football games . . . smiling faces . . . gab around a hot dog . . . Senior Class profits . . . Miss Miller guides energies toward useful work.

SHAMROCK ISLE

Shamrocks and elves provided an atmosphere of enchantment and fantasy . . . the green and gold adornments transformed Smith Hall into a bewitching Shamrock Isle . . . the first project sponsored by the class of '68.

FOUNTAINS SAY "FAREWELL"

Melancholy moments for departing seniors . . . cascading fountains and colored lights . . . enchanted dancers gliding gracefully through the openair court paying tribute to the diligence of the class of '68.

APRIL LOVE

A night to remember . . . light hearted . . . spirits calm amid grandeur . . . cuddling couples . . . excitement . . . tension and apprehension . . . the crowning touch to a lovely evening — our Junior Prom.

CHRISTMAS DANCE CHARMS ALL

Not just the S.H.S. gym but a beautiful snow scene . . . elegant dancers paused for psychedelic music . . . charming partners, both young and old . . . filled with excitement . . . last minute preparations before the evening's pleasures . . . just the beginning of an unforgettable night.

"SHARE BATH"

A simple arrangement of alternately-sharing bathroom facilities . . . confusion arises . . . all ends well as Alice successfully tears George from his bachelor world.

Mr. John Porambo, adviser . . . committees, directors . . . props, confusion backstage . . . outlandish make-up . . . a different type of fun.

"I REMEMBER MAMA"

Set crew banging . . . Mrs. Roeder pleading . . . actors speaking . . . director haranguing . . . prompter feeding . . . committees meeting . . . latecomers sneaking . . . costumers sewing . . . make-up flowing . . . tickets selling . . . production jelling . . . curtain rising! . . . The school's gone mad . . . some crazy fad . . . or Judgment Day? . . . No, the senior play!

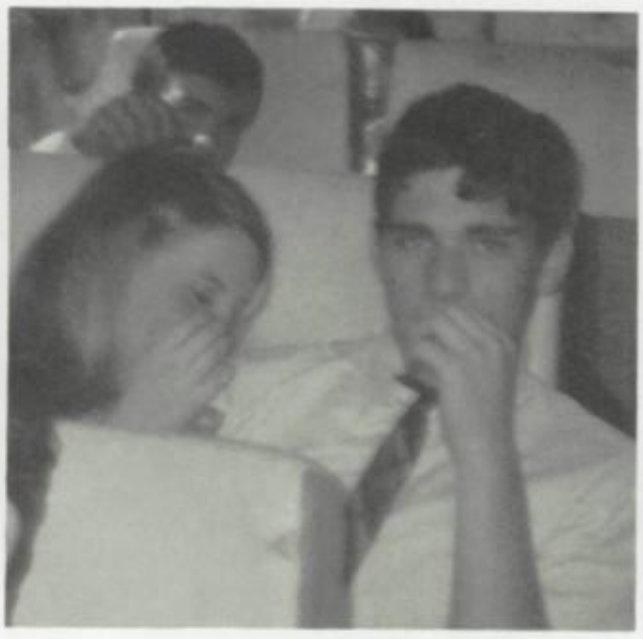
MONTREAL . . . HERE WE COME



. . . rising early with two hours of sleep
. . . singing M-A-R-V-I-N on the bus
. . . holding hands
. . . taking blackmail pictures every quarter mile
. . . getting a ticket for double parking
. . . visiting in hotel rooms
. . . seeing the stadium that will house the new Montreal National League Baseball team
. . . meeting two Canadian radio operators
. . . sitting enthralled at the telephone exhibit
. . . getting lost in Montreal
. . . noticing the beautiful parks and public buildings
. . . hearing our footsteps echo in a great cathedral
. . . exchanging culture face to face
. . . buying souveniers
. . . hearing the senseless chatter of French spoken everywhere
. . . meeting cute French boys
. . . absorbing the romance of Montreal
. . . discovering you're going the wrong way on the Metro
. . . trying to get rid of Canadian money
. . . staying awake for 56 hours straight
. . . stopping for Norma
. . . catching a few hours' sleep on the way home
. . . looking back on a WHALE of a time.

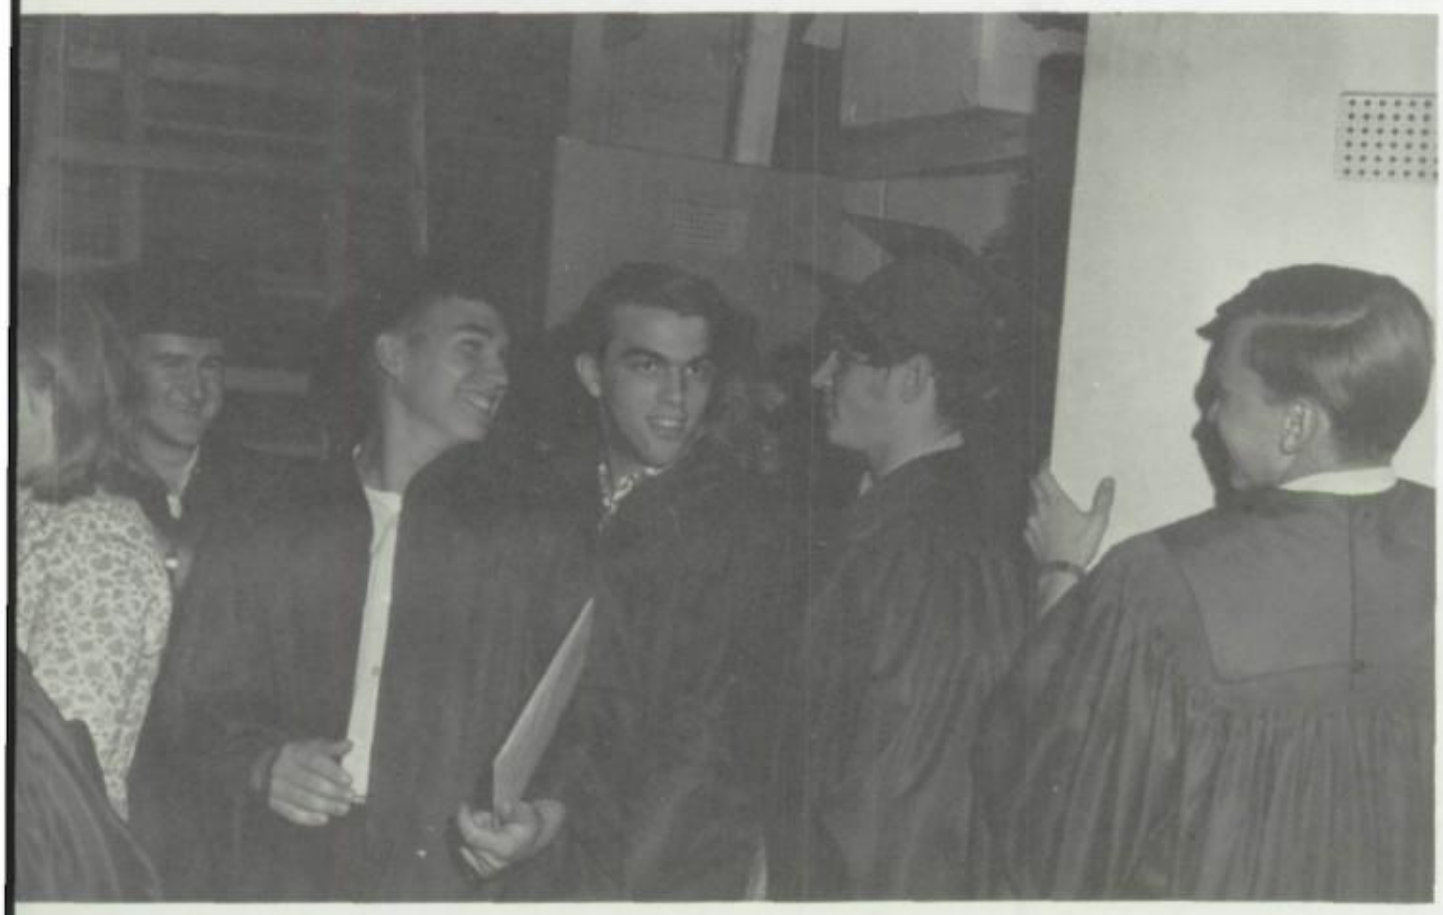
REFLECTING OUR PAST

Eavesdropping backstage:

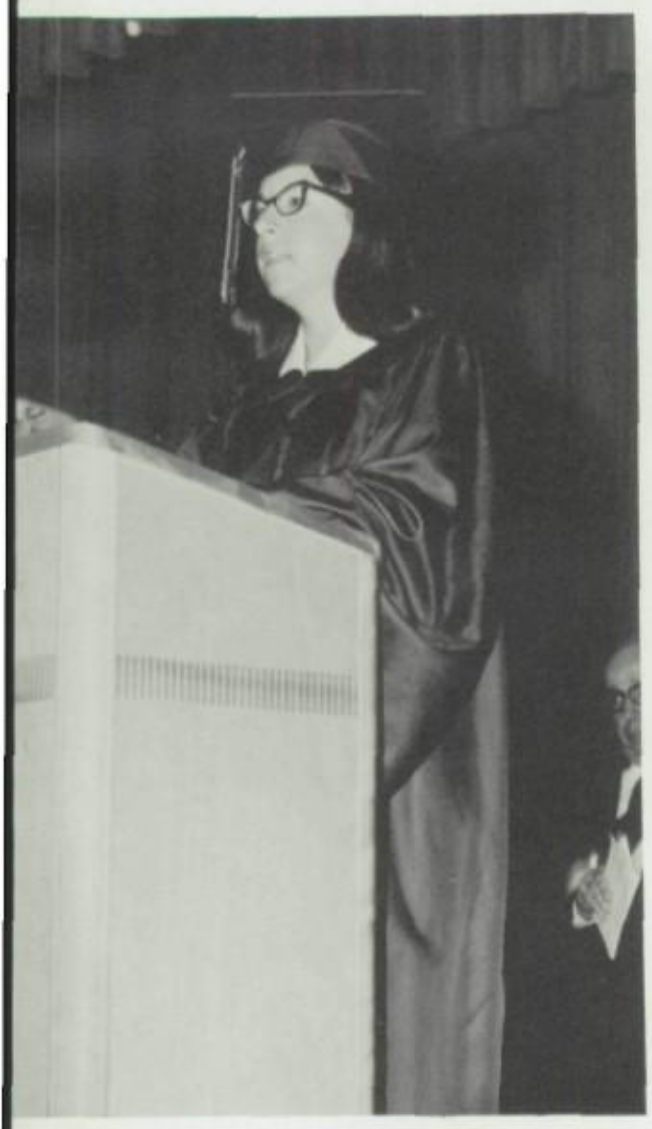
Hurry up, you're on next . . . Tell Mr. Miller not to knock over the mirror . . . Get handkerchiefs for the advisors . . . Here comes Pete Papay . . . Oops, there goes the mirror . . . Where's the baseball team? . . . Check Mrs. Kane doing the Hootchy Kootchy Polka . . . Class favorites are next . . . Who got 'Biggest Ears' . . . Where's the judge? . . . Here comes the judge . . . Hey, Mills, your hat's on crooked . . . It's 'Sock-it-to-me time' . . . Big Sam's coming . . . Hurry, they're showing the Class Trip slides!

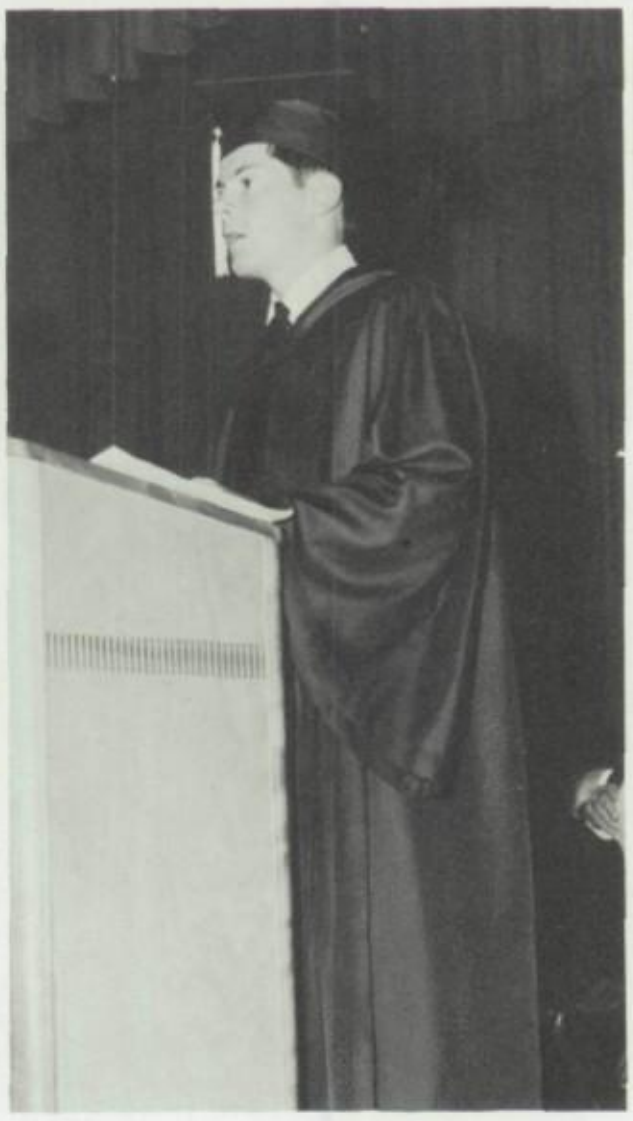


AN END . . .

The culmination of four year's efforts . . . failures forgotten as triumphs glisten in each eye . . . solemn robes carried from their dark abodes . . . freshly aired and pressed . . . stirring notes of "Pomp and Circumstance" . . . stately blue lines progressing toward the distinguished dignitaries . . . proud parents and favored friends.

AND A BEGINNING





Outstanding scholars A. Kathryn Mills, Valedictorian, and Gregg A. Howey, Salutatorian ... interpreting the significance of being human and importance of self-restraint in a permissive society ... advice from Robert C. Handwerk, S.H.S. graduate of 1918 ... Herman P. Snyder presented the class of '68 ... graduation had arrived.

GRADUATION . . .

Inspiring chords of traditional commencement melodies . . . the final walk toward a new horizon . . . the long anticipated moment arrives . . . Graduation . . . meaning more than a small roll of paper . . . signifying the end of our high school years . . . opening untried doors to the future.
